

Johanna Carroll's Return to the Goddess: Malta Sacred Retreat, June 2010

Greetings!

Join me as we journey to the mystical islands of Malta this spring for a journey that will energize and literally change your life.

We will walk in the paths of the ancients where you will tap into the spiritual energy on this land to reclaim your divine feminine power.

Undertaking a spiritual quest opens up doors of possibilities for your life like never before. You will nourish your soul and recharge on every level as you return with:

An elevated awareness of who you are and what you want to create in your life;
Clarity about your life's purpose;
A deep sense of peace and fulfillment.

Set in the heart of the Mediterranean...

Malta is a unique sacred site - it's a special place where the physical world seems to meet the spiritual world.

Known as the place where Mary Magdalene stopped on her journey to France and as the home of the Knights of Malta and the birthplace of the Maltese cross, the islands of Malta holds a unique place in history.

Our Magical 9-Day Voyage will Include:

Day 1: You will leave your destination the night before

Day 2: The day is yours to soak up the sun. We'll

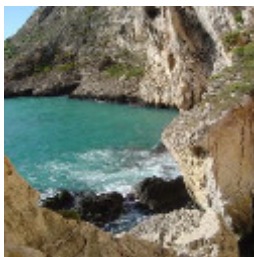

Day 3: After a powerful meditation, we'll visit Malta's and arrive on the island during the day. Our group will arrive at our hotel by the sea and settle into marvelous Malta.

Day 4: We'll travel by boat to gorgeous Gozo Island where Mary Magdalene lived for a time and have a special channeling ceremony there to honor the Divine Goddess within. Lunch is on your own.

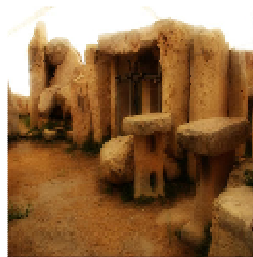

Day 7: After meditation, we will spend the day on serene Comino Island for a day of leisure. You can shop, sleep or relax by the sea. In the afternoon, we'll return to Malta where our private coach will take us back to our seaside hotel.

meet for our first spiritual gathering - a ceremony to awake the inner goddess. The day will end with a welcome dinner by the ocean in the early evening.

Day 5: We'll continue with another meditation followed by lunch. In the afternoon we'll visit Ta' Hagra, Skorba, Mosta Dome and the Artisans Village for shopping for local crafts, high-end jewelry and glass.

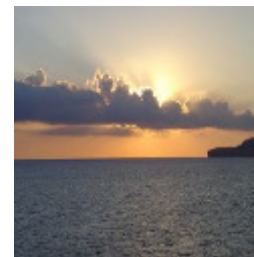

Day 8: Following our morning meditation, we will enjoy lunch before we visit Hypogeum, Tarxien, Hagar Qim and Mnajdra - The Temples of Malta. Some believe this is also the tip of Atlantis. More than 1,000 years older than the Pyramids of Giza and Stonehenge, UNESCO declared this a world heritage site in 1992.

capital city, Valletta, to see their famed Archaeology Museum and St. John's Co-Cathedral, where the Knights of Malta are interred. Lunch is on your own.

Day 6: After a deep meditation, we're off by ferry to visit Comino Island where we will stay overnight and experience the Hebrew mystic Avram. We'll stay at the only hotel on this island and share in a wonderful dinner and breakfast.

Day 9: Our fabulous journey comes to a close with a goddess ceremony to help you take the benefits of this journey into your future. You still have the entire day to enjoy the sights and sounds of Malta. In the evening, we'll join together for a phenomenal farewell dinner, with friends and memories you will carry with you for the rest of your life

Every day of the trip there will be a meditation, ceremony, channeling or opportunity to receive a personal message from the Divine.

This sacred journey is offered exclusively for women. So bring your mother, sister, best friend or come alone and meet your spiritual sisters. Join us on this divine journey into yourself!
